

A1 Assessors Award

Would you like to become an NVQ Assessor?

Majestic College now offers you an opportunity to earn more from your experience. Part of the requirements for succeeding any NVQ is to be assessed for the qualification. To become an NVQ assessor for you need an understanding of the industry and the A1 Assessors Award.

A1 consists of just one unit, compared to a level III, which is usually eight. Investing a little extra time and money could dramatically increase your earning potential and career prospects.

National Vocational Qualifications

NVQ's are work based learning qualifications. If you are working you are probably already qualified to some degree. Your work competence is your passport to development in your chosen career.

6 Steps to qualification
